ABOUT ME

I'm Maryam, a luxury bridal makeup artist based in Manchester. I'm super passionate about creating elegant, timeless looks for my modern brides. My artistry focuses on radiant glam that enhances your features, photographs beautifully and lasts effortlessly.

YOUR BRIDAL MAKEUP SERVICE

My aim is to bring a calm, friendly energy to your special day. I want you to feel completely at ease, knowing you're in the right hands while we create a look that feels truly you. I never take my bride's trust in me for granted - you are my priority! I'm grateful to say that the testimonials I've received from previous brides reflect this.

Your consultation video call allows us to plan your wedding day itinerary to ensure everything runs smoothly. If you're booking me without a trial, it's also a great way for us to connect before your big day and cover all details and questions.

Please note: I do not offer any hairstyling, hijab or party / bridesmaid makeup services, but can always recommend my trusted colleagues to you.

TRAVEL

Travel to your location is charged at £0.50 per mile plus £10 per hour of travel time. For my Brides who are quite a distance away from my local area (2.5 hours+ journey / more than 60 miles distance from my home postcode in Manchester), I require overnight accommodation in order to do your wedding makeup. This would be a hotel local to the getting ready location.

Destination & International weddings: A consultation call is required to chat through the surplus charges associated with travel and accommodation for a bespoke quote.

BRIDAL MAKEUP TRIAL: £250

Separate to your bridal makeup service package, your bridal trial is a dedicated appointment where we begin shaping your bridal look while also building trust, comfort, and understanding between us. This is our time to explore what works best for you. How your skin responds, how different finishes photograph, and how you like to feel in your makeup. We'll talk through ideas, make adjustments together, and refine the look through open communication rather than pressure or perfection.

Your trial makeup doesn't need to be the final version straight away. I like to think of our trials as more of a 'chemistry run' between you and I, and the makeup look as a 'first draft'.

Trials are held at my home location in Manchester and dates in my diary are offered on a first come, first served basis. I prioritise dates for my brides that are already booked in for their wedding with me. If you're booking a trial first, please note there may be a risk of your wedding date not being available by the time you are wanting to secure me as your artist.

ARE WE THE RIGHT FIT?

I want every bride I work with to feel completely confident in choosing me, and that means making sure our styles align. If you're highly reluctant or unrealistic with makeup or tend to be extremely particular we may not be the best fit. I want every bride to feel confident and fully trusting in my artistry for a smooth experience.

My signature bridal makeup needs layered application and will always sit on real skin with natural texture. If you're expecting absolutely no texture or fine lines to show, especially when your skin already has that, it may be unrealistic. All trust-worthy MUA's will agree and communicate that whilst natural texture cannot be erased, our expert technique and talent ensures it will always look flawlessly airbrushed on camera and in your final bridal makeup look.

If your main focus is finding the lowest price or cutting corners due to budget constraints, we're likely not the right fit. I provide a premium service and personalised attention to create the best experience, a level of care that reflects the investment!

If you love the looks you see in my portfolio, we'll work beautifully together.

PREPARING FOR YOUR BOOKING

To ensure a smooth, calm, and stress-free bridal makeup experience, please have your space and yourself prepared before my arrival so we can begin promptly. Have clean, lightly exfoliated & lightly moisturised skin with no heavy oils or skincare, allowing makeup to sit beautifully and last longer. Have your outfit, jewellery, and essentials ready. If your outfit needs to go over your head, please change into it beforehand and wear a robe or similar layer on top for comfort and protection.

Space & setup

- I work with a full professional kit of high-end products, so a clean, quiet, clutter-free space with a table is essential.
- Make sure there's enough room for me to set up and move comfortably around you.
- I bring my own chair so not to worry about that!

Lighting

- The right lighting can truly make or break your final look, and since I have limited control in new environments it's important we get it right.
- Natural daylight is ideal for accurate colour matching and a photo-ready finish. I do bring my own light(s) but please make sure the space isn't dark!

Etiquette & consideration

- An interruption-free environment is essential as it allows us to remain on schedule and keep you stress free! Please avoid delays in being ready for me to start.
- Encourage friends / family to be relaxed and mindful of space
- Keep water, snacks, and music / worship / podcasts ready for a calm and enjoyable morning.

Parking & access

- Easy parking or convenient building access is essential, as I carry a large kit.
- Ideally, a spot close to the door will make setup smoother and ensure I can work efficiently.
- Any parking charges will have to be paid for by the client
